Woburn, Massachusetts

DEDICATION

We, the Class of 1999, have chosen to dedicate our edition of the INNITOU to a person who has given an energetic and seemingly tireless effort to help us reach our academic goals. The extra hours he has given of his own time are countless. In addition, he has instilled an appreciation and enjoyment of culture and fine arts in the entire school population. He has served us as a teacher, mentor and friend.

Therefore, it is with extreme gratitude and thanks that we dedicate the 1999 INNITOU to:

MR. ROBERT HODGSON

Carl R. Batchelder

To the Class of 1999,

Congratulations Graduates! I heartily applaud your successful completion of twelve years of public education. It is an outstanding accomplishment deserving of recognition for determination and achievement.

This is a very special time in your life. However, your high school graduation is just the beginning of what I hope will serve as a symbol of your quest for a lifelong pursuit of knowledge. As you seek to achieve new goals, always remember that taking advantage of opportunities for educational advancement will forever open doors.

Whatever choices you make in the future, I wish you much success and happiness. It is my hope that you will reflect upon your years in Woburn with appreciation and pride. Again, congratulations.

Sincerely,

*Carl R. Batchelder, Ed.D.

P R I N C I P A L

The year 1999 represents the one hundred and forty-seventh anniversary of a graduation from Woburn High School.

To be privileged by your graduation to join the thousands of alumni of the school is to be reminded of the contributions of your predecessors over almost a century and one-half. They made contributions to community, state, and nation—some humble, some great.

Each year, each graduating class becomes more diverse in a school in which there are twenty-eight different places of birth. It is through this diversity that we develop strength as a school and as a community. Twenty-two years ago, Principal Henry Blake said: "Whatever differences exist among individuals should be regarded by the school, not as the basis for hostile groups, but rather as a means to enrich common life."

Let each of you in our own unique way contribute your own unique background to make the beginning of the 21st century a happier and more positive time for all the citizens of our world community.
